

Skip Slides in a Presentation

You can skip a slide when your slideshow plays without deleting the slide from your document.

Select the slide or slides in the slide navigator, outline, or light table view, and then right-click and select Skip Slide.

The slide image will collapse to show that it is not available when the presentation is played. To make a skipped slide visible in a slideshow, right-click on the slide and select Don't Skip Slide.

