

Subscribe

Share ▼

Past Issues

Translate ▼

RSS

Performance support for your DiSC® workshop.

View this email in your browser

Hi, <<First Name>>.

When doing DiSC with a group of leaders, at some point someone asks “which is the best style for leaders? Probably ‘D,’ right?”

It’s important to get this out of the way, and hammer it home:

The quality of leadership has nothing to do with the DiSC preference. It has to do with the quality of the leadership.

If you’re an S, and a leader, here are some things to know. The “S” leader is moderately-paced, accepting and warm. They prioritize the values of support, collaboration, and stability. Their style can be seen as inclusive, humble, and/or affirming. (Review the DiSC chart and further info here.)

These traits build credibility with those around you, and they know what to expect from you. When bold action is required, you will find people will buy in to your ideas, because you don’t have a habit of moving fast or impulsively.

As an “S” style leader, you might need to move out of your comfort zone to confront, present new idea, or roll out a new project. What you’ll find from your team is a willingness to listen.

Rate yourself – and/or ask others to rate you – on this: Am I actively jumping outside of my comfort zone to lead my team?

Best to you,

Have you registered for My Everything DiSC yet?

Subscribe to the Group Dynamic Blog

Want more thoughts on leadership in action by Alan? Subscribe to the Group Dynamic blog.

Subscribe

Share ▼

Past Issues

Translate ▼

RSS

connect with me!

follow

Copyright © 2017 Group Dynamic, All rights reserved.

unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences